

LEAD

Leadership Exploration and Development

This programme is tailored to meet the needs of new and aspiring TLR holders from all levels of experience, specialism and phases, including teachers on the Leadership development pathway. This programme involves two core sessions as a leadership cohort and three sessions in specialist groups, which delegates will choose at the start of the programme. As part of our offer, delegates will have a Leadership Passport that will give them first hand experience of middle leadership, through shadowing opportunities

Partnership Cost:
£99 per delegate

Our Programme

Effective line management (CORE SESSION) - Exploring key leadership qualities and how to hold others to account. The session will enable participants to focus on what makes an effective line manager and to evaluate their own skills as a leader

Wednesday 4th October 4.00-5.30pm

Bringing data alive - This session will be delivered in specialist groups and will give participants that chance to discuss how to use both soft and hard data in their chosen field to better understand their cohorts and context to enable them to deliver informed interventions; focusing on both students, staff and curriculum

Wednesday 22nd November 4.00-5.30pm

Testing the Temperature (CORE SESSION) - This session will focus on effective monitoring and mapping of your team, including student voice, learning walks, book checks as well as difficult conversations

Wednesday 24th January 4.00-5.30pm

Leadership transition - This session will be delivered in specialist groups. Taking leadership to the next level - A peer learning group including case studies and an exploration of the responsibilities and accountability of middle leadership

Wednesday 6th March 4.00-5.30pm

Shadow in your chosen field

An opportunity to shadow a colleague in your own school through the Leadership Passport, to gain a first hand experience of middle leadership exploring key aspects of the role.
